SPORTSMANSHIP

Presented by Kim

Sloane

- Each nominee needs to demonstrate sportsmanship skills and qualities at school and for the school.
- Nominees need to have good sporting knowledge, but do not have to be the best sportsperson.
- Nominees must be Channel K citizens and encompass other school mantra and values - at school and for the school.
- Nominees must show loyalty to the school by choosing to represent KIS when their sporting code opportunity is provided e.g. haven't played for another club.
- Nominees do need to think about the team, rather than just themselves.
- They also need to be responsible leaders, who go above and beyond for their class, team etc.
- Nominees need to abide by the Fairplay Code of Conduct contract signed at the beginning of the year.
- Nominees should offer encouragement to their own teammates and support others - e.g. supporting other classes from their own Team at lunchtime sport etc.
- Demonstrate respect towards other students/players, teachers, officials etc.
- Minimum 80% attendance at school.

SPORTSPERSON OF THE YEAR

Presented by Kim Sloane

- Nominees need to be of high calibre in regards to their sporting ability.
- They need to have been involved in a large number of lunchtime sports, as well as other sporting opportunities and events for KIS.
- Nominees need to have all round skills and knowledge of different codes.
- They need to have represented the school, if their sporting code has been supplied, as this is a school award.
- They may have been involved in umpiring or refereeing programmes outside of school, but it is not a requirement.
- They do need to have a focus of 'it's about the team', rather than 'all about me'.
- Although this is not necessarily about their sportsmanship skills and qualities, they do need to demonstrate some of those attributes.
- Include any national tournaments, NZ representations etc. they may have been a part of.
- Nominees need to abide by the Fairplay Code of Conduct contract signed at the beginning of the year.
- Demonstrate respect towards other students/players, teachers, officials etc.
- Minimum 80% attendance at school.
